TO THE PUBLIC.

On application I will give cards free of charge, which will enable my customers to get ice and my driver to deliver orders. Some of the customers don't get ice regularly, others can't get it at all. I'll tell you why: Lots of times the ice man calls "ice!" at your door and if no one appears he goes by. He has no time to go into each and every house to find out how much ice to leave, as sometimes they take and other times do not, and in most cases he must make two trips from his wagon to deliver 5 or 10 cents worth of ice. The results are that he gets late to some of the cus-

PORTER AT H. & T. C. DEPOT STABBED

Unknown Assailant Slipped Up and Stabbed Ed Childress in the Neck and Then Flew.

Ed Childress, a well known negro porter at the Houston & Texas Central depot, was seriously stabbed this afternoon by an unknown negro. After doing the cutting the miscreant took to his heels and the officers have not yet been able to find him.

Childress was loading the baggage trucks with trunks when the negro slipped up behind him and stabbed him in the back of the neck. He immediately turned upon his assailant to give fight when the latter took to his heels. Childress gave chase, grabbing a large oil can from the baggage room. After chasing the fugitive for about fifty yards he threw the can at him and gave up the case. Deputy Marshal Worley appeared on the scene and immediately took up the trail in the direction the negro had gone, but was unable to find him. Information was given that his name is Graves and that he resides in this city, but as to whether it is a fact or not has not been developed.

The cutting occurred just in front of the baggage room and was witnessed by several persons. Baggage-master R. P. Lemon stated to an Eagle reporter that no words passed between the two, and Childress stated that he had never seen the other negro before. Medical attention was immediately given to Childress and his condition is reported not very serious. The officers have the case in hand and will no doubt land the negro behind the bars.

Assailant Identified.

Information was learned later in the afternoon that the negro who did the cutting is named Ed Harrison, and that he lives on the C. S. Jones farm at Harvey.

A YOUNG MEN'S BUSINESS LEAGUE

A Rousing Club Could Be Organized and Would Do Great Things for Bryan!

While Bryan is taking such rapid and long strides of advancement along all lines, there is a feature which, if developed here, would bring an even greater enthusiasm and life. It is the organization of a young men's business league. A club with a full membership of the young men of Bryan would be a motive power of wonderful possibilities. The young blood used to oil the running gear of the machinery of progress would surely prove advantageous to the advancement of Bryan. A commercial club for young men would be a school for the younger citizens and the principles of city building could be learned, so that in the future years the present young men will be prepared to take the places of the retiring members in the Bryan Commercial Club.

The Young Men's Business League of Waco is attracting statewide attention on account of its splendid efforts for the advancement of the town, and it is through the aid of this organization that clubs composed of older men have been able to accomplish great undertakings. Get together, boys, and organize. You are sure to receive the co-operation of the entire town.

If you are thinking of buying a sewing machine it will cost you nothing to have the old reliable Singer brought to your house and prices and terms fully explained by T. A. Satterwhite, salesman.
